

Frank C. “Kim” Breese, III
800 Woodlands Pkwy., Suite 103
Ridgeland, MS 39157
(601) 351-3339
kim@breeselaw.com

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2004 – Present Breese Law Office PLLC; Jackson, MS

Attorney and Managing Member

Owner of sole practitioner law firm specializing in representing investors who have suffered losses by unscrupulous, improper, unethical and illegal acts of brokers and brokerage companies.

2000 -- 2004 Retired

1998 -- 2000 Donohue Industries, Inc.; Houston, TX

Executive Vice President

Served as top executive of this $500 million American subsidiary of Canadian paper company Donohue, Inc. which owned and operated two large newsprint mills in Texas with more than 1000 employees.

1995 -- 1998 Hoylake Associates, Ltd.; Jackson, MS

President and Owner.

Engaged in consulting for newspaper and newsprint companies developing a project and selecting a site for a new newsprint mill.

1992 -- 1995 Newsprint South, Inc.; Jackson, Ms.

July, 1992 – August 1995 President and Chief Operating Officer

As President and CEO, had bottom-line responsibility for all operations of Newsprint South, Inc. (NSI), a $175 million newsprint manufacturer operating a modern one-machine paper mill in Mississippi.

1970 -- 1992 Dow Jones & Co.; New York

1989--1992 VP and Chief Administrative Officer

Had responsibility for human resources, purchasing, real estate, facilities, corporate communications and newsprint purchasing. Served on the boards of Ottaway Newspapers (a group of 23 daily newspapers), the Dow Jones Foundation, and two equity newsprint ventures (Bear Island Paper in Virginia and Riviere du Loup in Quebec).

1985--1989 VP/Operations and President, Operating Services Group

1980--1985 VP of Operating Services Group

Had responsibility for production (of the Wall Street Journal and other Dow Jones publications), engineering, communications, construction and data processing with 1200 employees and a budget of more than $150 million. Oversaw a network of 18 high-tech printing plants and a 19-earth-station satellite communications network. Set up production operations for international editions of the Journal in Hong Kong, Tokyo, Brussels, The Netherlands, Switzerland and England.

1976--1980 National Production Manager

Had responsibility for the network of printing plants. Directed the expansion of Dow Jones's network of printing plants from 10 to 18.

1970--1976 Attorney, Corporate Legal Department

Performed general corporate legal work with primary responsibility in labor law. Handled all aspects of labor relations in Dow Jones printing plants, nine of which were unionized.

EDUCATION

J.D., 1970 Louisiana State University Law School

B.S., 1968 Louisiana Tech University (Business and Pre-law)

ACTIVITIES

Member, Bar Associations of Mississippi, Louisiana and New Jersey

Admitted to all Mississippi, Louisiana and New Jersey state courts and all Mississippi

Federal courts, and Federal District Court for Eastern District of Louisiana

Member, Professional Investors Arbitration Bar Association (PIABA)

Former board member, American Forest and Paper Association

Past chairman, newsprint executive committee of American Forest and Paper Association

Visiting Fellow, Woodrow Wilson Foundation
Former chairman, advisory board, school of printing, Rochester Institute of Technology
Former chairman, business advisory board, school of business, Rider College
Former member, Louisiana Tech Foundation Board
Former President, Mississippi Opera Association
Former Member, Duncan Gray Center Board of Managers (Episcopal conference center)
Vice Chairman, advisory board – Mississippi Center for Nonprofits

PERSONAL

Married to Kathryn T. Breese, retired professor of communications at the University of Southern Mississippi
One child, three stepchildren, eight grandchildren
Episcopalian (communicant of St. James' Jackson, MS)
Licensed pilot